How will you pay your tuition? (Check any of the following that apply.)

Employer/Company Tuition Reimbursement

NOTE: It is your responsibility that your employer pays promptly at the beginning of each semester. If your employer reimburses only after receipt of your course grades, tuition must be paid in advance from your personal funds or you may apply for student loans.

Financial aid (i.e. student loans)

Have you applied for financial aid yet? yes no

If yes, is your application complete? yes no

If no, please apply immediately and keep us informed regarding your status. Payment may be required from your personal funds until receipt of the loan funds depending on your application status and deadlines. Contact Paula Baxter at 972-883-4114 or paula.baxter@utdallas.edu for more information.

Veteran's Benefits

NOTE: Please contact the UTD Veteran's Benefits Team at 972-883-4020 or veteransbenefits@utdallas.edu for information/instructions. Executive Education Programs are self-funded (do not utilize public funds); therefore, are not eligible for the Hazlewood Act Exemption.

Personal funds

Payment remittance information will be provided with your invoice each semester.

Provide any additional information regarding your tuition payments:

I understand and agree that should I fail to pay my tuition that the following action(s) may be taken by the University:

- A bar against my continued enrollment or re-admission to the University, withholding of grades and official transcripts, and/or the withholding of a certificate or degree to which I otherwise may be entitled.
- Assignment of this tuition account to a collection agency. A collection fee of up to a 30% of the unpaid balance will be added to the outstanding balance.
- Notification to a credit reporting agency of my delinquency. This action could adversely affect my future ability to obtain credit.
- Possible legal action may be taken by the University to recover the total amount due, which may include other applicable fees.

I certify that I have read, understand, and agree to comply with the above tuition policy:
